

Village of Tivoli to Host a Dutchess County Sheriff's Department Sub-station

The Historic Watts dePeyster Hall, the building that houses the Village of Tivoli governmental offices, will host a sub-station of the Dutchess County Sheriff's Department, beginning Monday, March 1st.

Tivoli Mayor Thomas Cordier stated, "We are pleased to host this sub-station for the Sheriff's Department. A representative of the Sheriff's Department will be in the village hall on Mondays, 10:00 AM- 1:00 PM. Residents should feel free to stop in at any time to discuss issues of public safety with the deputy who is on duty."

Cordier continued, "This vital service is being provided to our community at no charge to residents. We are very grateful to Sheriff Anderson for allowing Tivoli this opportunity."

Dutchess County Sheriff Adrian "Butch" Anderson added, "My department is pleased to work with the Village of Tivoli in providing a sub-station for the village. We look forward to meeting with residents to listen to their concerns and suggestions. This information and pro-active approach will prove to be very helpful to the Sheriff's Department in providing public safety to the community."

Deputy Mayor Bryan Cranna concluded by saying, "Sheriff Anderson and his department have assisted the Village of Tivoli on a number of public safety issues. This opportunity is very welcoming and much appreciated."
